

THINKING THROUGH RACE AT THE ARSI

Hands-on Workshop for Research in Jesuit Archives

Tuesday 5 March 2024

16:00 – Barcelona / 15:00 – UK

10:00 – New York / 9:00 – Chicago

A conversation with Fabien Montcher, Director of the Center for Iberian Historical Studies at Saint Louis University, and Brent Gordon, PhD Candidate at Saint Louis University.

They will share about their experiences and specific tools for navigating the archive. We will then move on to a hands-on workshop—an informal and collaborative space to pose questions and think through possible solutions for doubts and difficulties in relation to research on race and Blackness at the ARSI and/or the Jesuit Archives in St. Louis.

This is a joint event cosponsored by the Centre for Iberian Historical Studies at Saint Louis University and The Making of Blackness project.

Workshop organized by Diana Berruezo-Sánchez, Erica Feild-Marchello and Andrea Rueda Herrera.

Via TEAMS link here.

Contact the organizers at makingofblackness@gmail.com

This workshop is part of the research project I+D+i PID2021-124893NA-I00: The Making of Blackness: A Process of Cultural and Social Negotiation from the Bottom-Up, funded by MCIN/AEI/10.13039/501100011033/.

The Making of Blackness

ADHUC