

The Pragmatics and Epistemology of Online Communication, Workshop Cardiff May 8 2024

Image by Gerd Altmann from Pixabay

Philosophy at Cardiff University and Logos/University of Barcelona are hosting a one day in-person workshop on the Pragmatics and Epistemology of on-line communication. The workshop is held at Cardiff University on May 8th 2024 in Room 0.31 of the John Percival Building.

Programme:

10:15-11:15 Anna Klieber (Cardiff) - 'Speaking is Silver, Silence is Golden? The Pragmatics of (Communicative) Silences in Online Spaces'

11:20-12:20 Josh Habgood-Coote (Leeds)- 'Bad Questions'

12:20-13:40 Lunch Break

13:40-14:40 Fintan Mallory (Durham) - 'The Political Economy of Online Speech'

14:45-15:45 Sarah Fisher (UCL) - 'Framing Ourselves Online'

15:45-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-17:00 Patrick Connolly (LOGOS/Barcelona) - 'Coordination and the Communicative and Epistemic Burdens in Online Conversation'

Everyone is welcome. If you need further information, please contact Alessandra Tanesini (Tanesini@Cardiff.ac.uk)

